

MASSIMO ORLANDI

Born in Rome on 5th January 1961. Married with two children.

High school certificate in scientific studies (Liceo Scientifico); degree (1984) in Chemical Engineering from Università degli Studi di Roma "La Sapienza".

He began his professional career in the Eni Group and then continued working for Edison, initially as Director of Business Development (electricity sector) and later as Commercial and Operations Director for Edison Gas. He also became President and Chief Executive Officer of Edison Idrocarburi Italiana S.p.A. and SAG - Società Adriatica Gas S.p.A..

Since July 1999 – the year in which Energia S.p.A. was established - he has been CEO of Sorgenia S.p.A., the first private operator in the Italian energy market for electricity and natural gas (over 500,000 customers in Italy, 2,900 MW of installed power generating capacity and 5 cubic metres of gas imported in 2009); Sorgenia has always made sustainable development and energy efficiency the guiding principles underpinning its growth.

As of today he is also Chairman of Tirreno Power S.p.A. and Vice President of Assolettrica.