

Giuseppe Vailati Venturi
CEO, KOS

Giuseppe Vailati Venturi graduated in Business Economics in 1994 from the Bocconi University in Milan. In 1998 he obtained a Master's degree in Business Administration from Insead (France). He started his career in Bain & Co. as a consultant in the company's Milan office, working on different industrial projects and assisting in M&A transactions.

From 2001 to 2003 he was Corporate Development Director of CIR S.p.a, following the company's direct investments and the acquisitions made by its subsidiaries. He contributed to the creation of KOS, assuming from the very beginning responsibility for the areas of administration, finance and development.

In 2007 he became General Manager of the company. In September 2009 he was appointed CEO.